

Ian Geddes-Cook

Hardrada Rottweilers

I have been involved with dogs all of my life, owning and showing rottweilers since the mid 1980's, Originally from the UK, I have lived in New Zealand since 2002. I exhibit my dogs under the "Hardrada" prefix. I have also owned champion Swedish Vallhunds and shown Saint Bernard's

I have bred or owned over 25 champions, with champions in 6 countries, including many top dog in breed awards and multi best in show winners, at both General and Breed speciality shows. My dogs having won at the highest level including CC and Best of breed winners at the top shows in UK and Ireland (Crufts and Saint Patrick's Day Show).. In 2012 the Crufts Best of Breed Winner was also from my lines

At present , I serve as Vice President of the (TKA) Tauranga Kennel Assn Championship show committee, my role over the years have been varied, I am currently the editor of TKA newsletter. I also have the honour of being President of the Bay Of Plenty Judges Association.

Judging since 1991, I have judged in England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand, a breed specialist in Rottweilers and Swedish Vallhunds, I also award CC's in the Utility group and have just passed my theory exam for Non Sporting Group.

Having a particular interest in larger breeds , I have also had the pleasure to judge the following breeds at breed speciality shows, Alaskan Malamutes, Bullmastiffs, Doberman's, Dogue de Bordeaux, Rottweilers and St Bernard's. I am looking forward to judging the NSW Newfoundland Club Championship Show (Australia) in 2013